Questions for Reflection

1. As you read 1 Timothy 6:6-10 & 17-19, what stands out to you as most stunning? Explain why.
2. What does it mean to you to view financial decisions through the lens of "faithfulness"? How might this perspective shift your approach to money management?
3. How do you think the cultural pressures to chase material comforts, like cars or vacations, affect our sense of godliness and contentment?
4. How do you interpret Malachi 3:10's call to bring the "whole tithe"? What might it look like to trust God with the "whole of who you are"?
5. What role do you believe faithfulness in finances plays in building both personal peace and a sense of community within the church?
