Questions for Reflection

1. As you read Psalm 98, what stands out to you as most stunning? Explain why.
2. What is the difference between happiness and joy as described in the sermon? How can we cultivate joy as a condition of the heart?
3. The message emphasizes the importance of remembering God's fulfilled promises. Can you share a time when remembering God's past faithfulness helped you find joy during a challenging time?
4. The message points out that our lack of joy can make Jesus appear unattractive to others. How does the way we express our faith influence how others perceive Christ?
5. In what ways can the church, and individual believers, act as agents of reconciliation and restoration in a broken world? How can this mission demonstrate the joy of Christ to others?
