

CHRISTMAS PLAYLIST PART 5:
GO, TELL IN ON THE MOUNTAIN
December 29, 2024
Luke 2:8-20

Some news simply must be _____.

The shepherds probably weren't _____ in any way.

Familiarity can cause us to lose a sense of _____.

Let's step back and realize how _____ Jesus' birth was!

When the shepherds got the message, they _____.

After the shepherds saw Jesus, they spread the _____.

In spite of all our blessings and comforts, we sometimes find it hard to
_____ the good news about Jesus.

If we make Christmas about us, it's easy to get _____.

Christmas isn't about us! It's about _____!

News that our world desperately needs to hear:

_____ is _____!

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION

1. Read Luke 2:8-20. Are there any details in this familiar story that you may not have noticed before? Any words or phrases that catch your attention?
2. If you are with a group, sing together the chorus of Go, Tell It on the Mountain. Does the fact that this song was originally composed and sung by slaves make it more meaningful to you? If so, why?
3. Why is it so easy to forget that Christmas is about Jesus and not about us? Why is it dangerous to do so?
4. What would it look like if we took the words of Go, Tell It on the Mountain as a command? Who do you know who needs to hear about Jesus?
